The Nevada Association for Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health (NV-AIECMH) is the main place in Nevada to learn about infant and early childhood mental health (IECMH). We offer trusted, relationship-based training that helps teachers, caregivers, and other professionals build a strong knowledge base and the skills needed to support the social, emotional, and relational development of babies and young children. Our trainings follow the IECMH Competency Framework® and can help you earn about the IECMH Endorsement®, a nationally recognized credential that shows your expertise in this important work. By becoming an NV-AIECMH member (www.nvaiecmh.org), you'll gain access to exclusive training opportunities, professional resources, the IECMH Endorsement credential, and a statewide network of IECMH-informed professionals.

Registration Guidelines

The Children's Cabinet must follow Nevada Registry training guidelines in issuing credit for our webinar training's. The Nevada Registry states, "To receive credit for attending a training, it is imperative that attendees be present at the training for the entire scheduled time frame. If the accumulated time out of class (including late arrivals, extended breaks and early departures) extends beyond 15 minutes total, then no class credit should be granted. (Approval codes are specific to the number of hours approved and cannot be adjusted for partial attendance)." Additionally, so we can account for each participant, all attendees must register and attend under their own name.
