Class Guidelines & Important Information

Class Attendance

- Due to the demand for many of our classes, parents will only be allowed to sign up for the same class twice in any 12-month period.
- Please be aware of class start dates and times, and arrive to your scheduled class on time.
- Participants who are 15 minutes late or more for the scheduled class will not be admitted into the class. Participants who leave on a break and do not return will not receive attendance credit for the class.
- Please silence all phones and/or other electronic devices when entering into the classroom.
- Only registered participants are permitted in the building during class hours. All other individuals remaining will be asked to leave.
- Classes are for adults only (except PATMA , Managing Stress with Yoga and Meditation, and Active Parenting with Your Teen).
- Childcare is not provided during class times. Due to safety and liability reasons, please do not bring your children with you to class (except children being breastfed).

Certificates & Records of Attendance

- Attendance is required every night in order to receive a certificate. Series courses that have four or more class dates may allow for ONE class absence and still issue a certificate for the course. Any exceptions will be noted. Participants may request an attendance report if they need proof of attendance.
- If you register for a class and then cannot attend, please contact us immediately to cancel. Most of our classes fill up quickly. Notifying us that you cannot make it will reserve your spot for another parent or guardian who needs to attend the class.

Cancellations

- Classes may be cancelled due to weather conditions, poor class attendance (e.g., less than 5 participants preregister for the class; less than 5 participants attend the class), or other unforeseen circumstances. Efforts will be made to contact participants prior to a class cancellation. If possible, a cancelled class will be rescheduled.

Release of Information Form

READ FIRST: Before you decide whether or not to let The Children's Cabinet share some of your confidential information through the course of enrollment into parenting classes or class attendance history with another agency or person, staff at The Children's Cabinet or referring agency, we will discuss with you all alternatives and any potential risks and benefits that could result from sharing your confidential information. If you decide you want The Children's Cabinet to release some of your confidential information, you can use this form to choose what is shared, how it's shared, with whom, and for how long.

I understand:

- That I do not have to sign a release form. I do not have to allow The Children's Cabinet to share my information. Signing a release form is completely voluntary.
- That releasing information about me could give another agency or person information about my location and would confirm that I have been receiving services from The Children's Cabinet.
- That The Children's Cabinet and I may not be able to control what happens to my information once it has been released to the above person or agency, and that the agency or person getting my information may be required by law or practice to share it with others.
- The Research Confidentiality Policy – It is the policy of this organization that no identifying data pertaining to individual clients will be released to outside entities for research purposes.

I understand that this Release is valid when I sign it and that I may withdraw my consent to this Release at any time either in person or in writing.
